

Prexcyt Quest: The First Cryptex Hunt Solution Guide

Temple of Mil (Dart Game)

This is the meta for the fairground. The barker starts you off with a hint in his welcome:

A barker says to you 'You've done so well with the other attractions, I've got one last game for you to try. You're so good, I bet you can do it blindfolded! Step right up and pop the balloons -- pop the right ones, and you win the prize!'

Looking at the balloons, trying to identify the right ones, you notice that you can spell out the words you found in the fairground games. These are the ones to pop: EMERALD, JAQUES, POWER, GEODE, GARNET.

EM	G	GA	ST	JA	A	PO	GE	SI	EO
WE	MO	NG	ER	RI	DS	AL	QU	RN	EA
RC	H	ES	GH	DE	R	ET	OS	D	TS

As clued by “blindfolded” and the 3x2 groupings, the pattern of the popped balloon spells out in Braille: FOURS.

The unpopped balloons, when gathered together in order, spell out:
STAGE, SIMON, GRID, SEARCH, GHOSTS.

Putting those answers in order and looking at the “fours” (fourth letter) of each:

J A Q U E S
G A R N E T
G E O D E
P O W E R
